

GOinteract sessions – GOFest, 13 May 2017

Title	Synopsis	Speaker
Option 1 (The Big Picture) - Morning session
From everywhere to everywhere	Are missionaries still needed? Come and explore how mission has changed in a changing world and where the needs exist.	Eddie Arthur (Wycliffe Bible Translators)
Option 1 (A closer look) - Afternoon session
The church is bigger than you think	Discover how your church life can be enriched through relationship with churches in other parts of the world.	Eddie Arthur (Wycliffe Bible Translators)
Option 2 (The Big Picture) - Morning session
How can we reach the hard places?	There are still parts of the world that seems unattractive or unpopular' to many of us. Should we be concerned about the hard-to-reach places?	Gerard Charles (OMF)
Option 2 (A closer look) - Afternoon session
Today's Europe: challenges and opportunities	Europe has been all over the news in recent times, not least with Brexit and the Migrant crisis. Find out more about Europe's challenges and opportunities.	Matthew Skirton (OM)
Option 3 (The Big Picture) - Morning session
The World on our doorstep	People from all over the world are now part of our communities. Find out more about the changing situation and what it means for us.	Peter Oyugi (AIM)
Option 3 (A closer look) - Afternoon session
Befriending the stranger	It's hard to know where to start in building relationships with people from other cultures. Find out one church got started and became a place of welcome.	Katarina Martin
Option 4 (The Big Picture) - Morning session
The world still waits	In this anniversary year of 500 years since the reformation, what is the scale of the task in reaching the world with the gospel.	Colin Mitchell (Baylink)
Option 4 (A closer look) - Afternoon session
Moving on with God's Mission	An opportunity to discuss how are our churches can engage meaningfully with God's mission and how we can work in partnership to share in the task.	Colin Mitchell (Baylink) (with panel facilitation)

(programme subject to change)